Scouting Management: Course	These are fun, engaging training courses held at some great Scouting campsites or at Scout Halls near you. Check the course calendar and apply at https://scoutsvictoria.com.au/age-sections-adults/training/ The Scouting Essentials Course and the On-Demand Scouting Management module must be completed before applying to attend the Scouting Management Course.
On The Job Training – Program Support Leader	Once the On the Job – Program Support Leader phase is completed, it is submitted to your Team Leader online. Once verified by your Team Leader (they will get an email) this will automatically be recorded on your membership record on Extranet the next day.
Certificate of Proficiency Awarded	Your training up to this point is recognised with the Certificate of Proficiency (COP), represented through the 'Gilwell Woggle'. The COP is the training qualification that allows you to be appointed as a provisional program support leader, rather than a trainee.

You must have achieved a Certificate of Proficiency (including the On The Job – Program Support Leader) and the currently available Scouting Leadership On-Demand Modules to apply for your Scouting Leadership course.		Proposed completion date	Date Completed

Scouting Leadership Course	These are fun, engaging training courses held at some great Scouting campsites or at Scout Halls near you. Check the course calendar and apply at https://scoutsvictoria.com.au/age-sections-adults/training/ During this course your Wood Badge project will be approved by the Course Leader based on ideas that you bring and a scoping discussion.
On The Job Training – Scouting Leadership	This phase's checklist includes: • A final list of skills to verify which is an evaluation of your work on the ground, which we typically call the Wood Badge Evaluation. After the Scouting Leadership Course there is a four-month Wood Badge evaluation period. This period involves observation and support for your skills in action to ensure that an advanced level of proficiency has been reached. The verifier may recommend that the evaluation period be extended, with further support provided to the trainee. • the completion of your Wood Badge Project. Your project will be scoped on the Scouting Leadership course. It should give you an opportunity to develop yourself in something related to your role while exploring the Fundamentals of Scouting. This phase is completed with your 'Team Leader's Team Leader' which for most Youth Program Leaders will be the District Commissioner or their delegate. You can submit this to the verifier online once the checklist's completed. Once verified, this will automatically be recorded on your membership record on Extranet the next day.
Wood Badge Awarded	Having completed the training program for your role, you will be awarded the Wood Badge, with a Certificate of Advanced Adult Leadership (CAAL) relevant to your role as a Program Support Leader. The Wood Badge is awarded only once, while the CAAL represents that you have completed Wood Badge-level training for any subsequent role you undertake.

# = These modules are not yet available. Once available, they will be introduced to the training pathway.

Where to find the On-Demand Modules:

For Scouting Preliminary, Essentials, Management and Leadership modules, scroll down to Program Support Leader Training on the On-Demand Learning platform (https://training.scouts.com.au/curriculums/index). You will probably want to set this as 'My Training'.

You can also find the Program Support Leader Training page using the 'Curriculums' menu up the top of the page.

Where to find the On The Job Phases:

These are also on the On-Demand Platform (https://training.scouts.com.au/) using the menu up the top.
